

JOB POSTING

POSITION: Chief Medical Officer
LOCATION: N'Djamena, TCHAD
CLOSE DATE: 5 May 2018
COMPENSATION: Salaried Position

DESCRIPTION:

Essential Air Services – Africa is looking to employ a qualified individual in the positions of Chief Medical Officer in support of our operations based in N'Djamena, Tchad. EASA is engaged in providing primary leg aviation based medical treatment & evacuation. This service is performed across the SAHEL region of Africa.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Training in Advanced Life Support Trauma Medicine as a licensed Medical Doctor is required.
- Experience in an Emergency or Trauma center, civilian or military, environment is required.
- Fluency in French & English required: working proficiency in Arabic and/or Mandarin a plus. Strong writing skills in primary language is required.
- Candidate will be an excellent communicator and be able to work with local and international colleagues in designing and managing patient care.
- Candidate must be willing to undergo Continuing Medical Education, work on a regular call schedule, meet with clients, oversee Flight Medic training & work well in a team environment.
- Candidate will have a high level of commitment to improving emergency medical care in Chad, educate others around them, operate with integrity and self-motivation, be flexible and adapt quickly to events.

RESPONSE:

- Submit CV to info@eas-africa.com by 5 May 2018

EASA Hanger
Hassan Djamous International Airport - Tchad, Africa
+235 90 44 01 23 – info@eas-africa.com - www.eas-africa.com